

Sleep rough so others don't have to!

YMCA Northumberland Sleep Easy 2020 Terms & Conditions

By registering to take part in YMCA Northumberland's Sleep Easy you are agreeing to the following terms

- The aim of Sleep Easy is to raise as much money as possible to support YMCA Northumberland's work. We ask all participants to commit to raising as much sponsorship money as they can.
- You must send any sponsorship money to YMCA Northumberland to arrive by the end of March 2020.
- As the event takes place outside overnight, extremes of weather could be experienced. Participants are responsible for their own medical condition and ensuring that they are fit to take part. Please consult your doctor if you suffer from heart, joint, back or breathing problems or any other medical condition that may affect your ability to take part.
- You must confirm that, as far as you are aware, you are currently in a good state of health and that you will not take part unless you are in a good state of health at the time of the event.
- You are taking part in the event at your own risk. Neither the YMCA nor any third party organisers of Sleep Easy events will have any responsibility for any risk, loss or costs incurred by you in connection with the event.
- The YMCA does not carry insurance in relation to your participation in the event. Should you judge that additional insurance is necessary it is your responsibility to obtain this.
- Photographs taken at the event may be used by the YMCA in publicity material. You must notify the organisers of the event if you do not want to be photographed.
- There will be strictly no alcohol or drugs on any Sleep Easy event premises. Smoking is restricted to a designated area.
- You are responsible for your own safety during the event and should take reasonable care to ensure the safety of other participants. In the interest of your own safety and that of others you agree to comply with all instructions and guidelines given by the YMCA, the organisers and persons acting on their behalf.
- YMCA Northumberland reserves the right to refuse entry to the event at their discretion.
